On July 29, 2016, the offender was released on a $1,000 bond. This case has not been filed for prosecution and remains pending in Cameron County Court at Law in Brownsville, Texas.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

On August 1, 2016, the offender reported to this officer to discuss his arrest. The offender initially denied doing anything wrong; however, after further discussion he admitted knowing that his driver's license had been suspended. He acknowledged using poor judgment in choosing to drive without a license and stated he will not operate his motor vehicle until his driver's license has been reinstated. As a controlling strategy, the offender has been instructed not to operate his motor vehicle without a license. As a correctional strategy, this officer discussed the offender's statutory exposure should violations continue to occur. This officer respectfully recommends that the Court take no action at this time and allow the offender to continue on supervised release. Mr. Cardenas has been admonished that further noncompliance could result in revocation proceedings. It is understood the Court reserves the right to address this violation at a later date.
